

Summer Packing List

We are looking forward to serving you!

Weather at Table in the Wilderness, situated at an elevation of 8250', is very unpredictable. One day might be 70 degrees while the next day might only be in the 50s. Also, there is always wind so campers must be prepared. With that in mind, we would like to give you the following packing list of what to bring to make your stay as comfortable as possible.

- Notebook, Pen
- Water Bottle
- Shower Towel
- Pillow
- Sleeping Bag
- Toiletries
- Sunscreen & Hat(s)
- Shorts, t-shirts, socks (multiple pairs of socks)
- Lightweight jackets/hoodies
- Sunglasses
- Shoes and boots (it can get quite muddy at camp)
- Swimsuit for canoeing
- Warm clothing to layer during the evenings
- Other items as determined by your leader

Additional notes:

Each Table in the Wilderness cabin is equipped with fully functional toilet, shower, and heater. While all cabins include a queen-size bed (with a fitted sheet) and bunkbeds with small mattress pads, there is no bedding supplied so sleeping bags and pillows are essential. Towels for drying off after a shower or playing in the snow or lake are also essential. If someone forgets or doesn't have any of these items, Table in the Wilderness has a small inventory of items that we would love to share.
